CLEVELAND (April 27, 2023)—Solstice, the Cleveland Museum of Art's (CMA) signature summer event, will take place Saturday, June 24, from 7 p.m. to 12 a.m. This annual celebration is an energy-filled night of music and art, featuring performances by international bands on the museum's outdoor south terrace and by nationally recognized DJs in the Ames Family Atrium. Projection mapping, lighting displays and additional decorations electrify the CMA. The iconic, global-minded festival is unlike any other event in Cleveland.

Museum members receive advance access to tickets beginning Monday, May 15, at 10 a.m. If tickets are still available after the member presale, the public sale begins Tuesday, May 16, at 10 a.m. Member and public tickets are $150 (limit four per order). The all-inclusive ticket covers unlimited food and beverages, including beer, wine and canned cocktails. This event is for guests 21 or older.

Along with the amazing art, great food and unforgettable fun throughout the evening, the museum's permanent collection galleries will be open late into the night as well. Exciting announcements on the artist lineup and programming are coming soon.

Become a member for a first chance to reserve your presale tickets, available online at https://www.clevelandart.org/Solstice or by phone at 216-421-7350.
